"I heard James ask Gillespie, the bartender, for a drink. I saw Gillespie set the whisky bottle on the bar. I paid no further attention. It was prehably a minute later when, as I stood with my side towards James, he came up to me and stuck me such a blow with the whisky bottle in the mouth that three of my teeth werk knocked into my throat. I spat them out.

"I was terribly dazed and could see only the outline of a man standing over me. Fearing he would bring the bottle down on my head, I palled my visited and began firing. I think I fired three shout while on my kneets and one more after arising from the floor. I fired the last shot as James was running from me. I had never seen James before, and he struck me without any provocation. I acted only in self-defense, and am sorry that I had to kill bim."

BARTENDER'S STATEMENT.

BARTENDER'S STATEMENT. James Gillespie, the bartender, substan lated the statement of Greely in all the material points. He even went further and stated that James kicked at Greely several times while the detective was on his knees.
"James ordered whisky and I sat the botparty, has issued a call for a netional convention of that party for May 1 to 4, 1964, at the World's Fair in St. Louis.

The call states that the convention will be held for the purpose of "economic discussion and peace on earth in the name and spirit of Jesus Christ, and to further accomplish this great purpose by recommending or nominating candidates for President and Vice President of the United States on a worldwide platform on which all Christians and pairiots can stand and finally unite, pledged to stand for the Union in his name." ENGLAND WILL ROYALLY WELCOME OUR SQUADRON.

Petire British Channel Fleet Ordered to Greet Americans at Portsmouth -King Edward Will Receive Officers.

Washington, June 28.-The State Depart ment has been advised that the Govern-ments of England and Portugal are making ready to shower hospitality on the Amerian European squadron.

King Edward has arraigned to give a grand bail on July 8 in henor of President Louber and the American naval officers at-tached to the squadron will be invited to et the President. On the following day meet the President. On the following day the King will give the officers a banquet in Buckingham Palisce. The naval and of the reception will make a grand marine spectacle, for the entire vast channel squadron has been ordered to assemble at Spitnead to welcome the little American squadron when it comes to bort at Portsmouth from Kiel. It appears that the invitation to the squadron to visit Lisbon was inspired directly by the King of Portugal so that the reception there will be of the most formal and official character.
